Age Information

At corporate and participating licensee locations in Canada, Avis will rent to customers between the ages of 21-24 who have a valid credit card and driver's license. There is a 25.00 CAD per day underage surcharge for renters between the ages of 21-24. Additionally, the following restrictions will also apply for renters between the ages of 21-24: Renters of luxury cars, mini-van, 12-passenger vans, specialty cars, standard SUV's, full size SUV's and premium SUV's will not be permitted.

In the Province of Quebec, the minimum age policy for all renters is 21 years with an under-age fee of 25.00 CAD per day.

In the Province of Saskatchewan, the minimum age policy for all renters is 18 years and there is no underage fee. Minimum age and underage surcharges can vary by location. It is best to check with the reservation team on the minimum age policy and restrictions at the location you are renting from if you are under 25.

Payment Options

Avis accepts most major credit cards as credit identification at time of rental including:

- Avis Charge Card
- American Express
- ATT Capital Canada
- Diners Club International
- Discover
- JCB
- MasterCard
- Visa

At the time of rental, corporate locations will request an authorization on your charge card for the estimated rental charges plus 20 percent or a minimum of 750.00 CAD whichever is greater. At licensee locations, the hold amount may vary and will be determined based on rate, car group, length of rental and miscellaneous charges. While this hold is in place the funds will not be available for your use. When the rental is over, we will process the reversal but the bank may take time to post it back to the account.

Some locations may not accept each of the referenced cards.

Debit Cards

Debit cards are not accepted at time of rental as credit identification.

Debit, cash or check cards can be used at the end of rental for payment of rental charges.

Prepaid debit or gift cards are not acceptable methods of credit identification to pick up a car at any location. One of the above mentioned cards must be presented. Prepaid debit/gift cards are accepted at time of return only.
